St. Joseph, Patron of the Interior Life

While on retreat the retreat master in one of his meditations reflected that St. Joseph was the patron of the interior life. That is the life of the soul and prayerful connection with God. I reflected on this throughout the retreat, and I could see why he had said this. St. Joseph is never recorded saying anything in the Gospels, he exemplifies the silence of voice and heart necessary to hear the voice of God. Yet we see him respond obediently to the Lord's promptings in dreams again and again. He is also described as a "just man" in the Gospel, implying that he lived an integral and holy life ordered toward the Lord. (Psalm 1) Plus, St. Joseph also protected the Christ Child and the Blessed Mother from harm. All this adds up to a man who was totally centered on the Lord and desired to do God's will no matter the costs.

What a beautiful thing it is that St. Joseph is the patron of our Family of Parishes, who also serves as an intercessor to deepen our friendship with Christ in our life of prayer. I want to encourage you to think about one small thing you could do in your life to deepen your friendship with Jesus. Perhaps it is reading from the New Testament for five minutes a day, stopping by the church to make a short visit to Jesus' True Presence in the tabernacle, or reading the upcoming Sunday's gospel early in the week and trying to reflect on the passage throughout the week. Whatever it may be, you can do it!

As we continue to approach Lent, I would like to suggest a "suggested" practice for our Family of Parishes. As mentioned above silence and distraction can be a hinderance to our life of prayer. I would encourage you to consider fasting from social media during the Lenten season. Whether by limiting the use of social media or giving up social media altogether, by doing so you will experience a freedom and opportunity to embrace a digital simplicity in your life and see your ability to relate with those in front of you and Jesus increase. This is just a suggestion.

One of the precepts of the Catholic Church is to provide for the material needs of the Church. Please reach out to the parish office to get envelopes to begin giving if you have not already. Each parish now also has the option to give by electronic fund transfer (EFT) which is another option if you are not already giving, or you can adjust the way you give to EFT if that is more convenient for you. Again, you can reach out to the parish office for more information. We appreciate the generosity you have already shown and are grateful for your continued support.

We had our first sacraments retreats for the 2nd graders who are preparing to receive First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion along with their parents. Each of the two retreats in the St. Joseph Family were beautiful and it was awesome to see our young people and their parents come together to seek a deeper relationship with our loving God.

Thank you to everyone who helped with those First Sacraments Retreats whether it was an employee, catechists, volunteers, those who provided food, and the priests. It was a team effort and a wonderful opportunity to invest in our families.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Jarred Kohn

FIND PRAYER CHALLENGING?

You know that prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. What God did in the lives of countless saints, He wants to do in the lives of ordinary people like us. And that's what this study is about: the journey of prayer God wants to take us on. Join us for When You Pray: A Clear Path to a Deeper Relationship with God once a week for seven weeks.

For more information or to register for the study, contact Rose Meyer at 937-295-2179, or email rosem@nflregion.org or scan the QR code.

We are offering three options:

Option #1 – Monday nights at St. Michael Hall.

Starts March 4 and Ends April 15 (meets weekly for 1.5 hours) Time – 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Option #2 – Wednesday mornings at the Holy Angels Parish Meeting Center. Starts March 13 and Ends April 24 (meets weekly for 1.5 hours) Time – 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Option #3 – Form your own family or friend group. Meet at someone's home when it's convenient for your group.

The observances of National Marriage Week (February 7-14) and World Marriage Day (Sunday, February 11) are an opportunity to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family. Our theme for 2024 is Love Beyond Words – the permanent, faithful and fruitful love in a sacramental marriage is truly beyond words. Learn more at www.foryourmarriage.org.

Prayer for Married Couples

Almighty and eternal God, You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with His Church: look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase Your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of Your blessing. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please see the For Your Marriage display table at the back of church for more information.

Pray for Life, Marriage and Religious Liberty

In gratitude for the gift of the Sacrament of Marriage, a special blessing for all married couples will be offered at each Mass the weekend of February 10th-11th.

THE VICAR'S CORNER: FR. AARON HESS

A few weeks back, I was able to put on a game night for Sts. Peter and Paul's CCD family night. We split the students and their families into two groups and had them compete in a variety of things over the night. And since they are named after two saints, I thought, that's perfect! I'm going to name one team the St. Peter team and the other St. Paul. So I got poster boards and wrote the names of students on each team and then in the middle of each wrote their saint and then drew the symbol traditionally associated with each: for St. Peter, he got the two crossed keys, and for St. Paul, a sword. Well, a couple weeks later I was praying at St. Michael, which has a statue of these two saints in their high altar, and it struck me that they were holding these symbols: the keys and the sword! So I figured, okay, there's a vicar's corner ready to write (and now you get a little insight into some of my thought process!)

St. Peter has the keys as his symbol because Jesus said in Matthew chapter 16, "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." This was actually a very powerful gesture, because Jesus was handing over the authority over His house, the Church, to Peter. Peter, as the first pope, then becomes the caretaker, the guardian, the steward. Obviously it is still Christ's church, not Peter's, but this apostle, by receiving keys, now has free reign to take care of it as best he can while Christ is on His heavenly throne.

St. Paul is depicted often as carrying a sword, although we do not know that he was ever a soldier of any kind. Instead, the symbol comes from his letter he wrote to the Ephesians, where he famously describes the armor of God that we are to wear as Christians. During that passage, he writes, "And take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God." We see St. Paul make this analogy between the Word of God and the sword in a few other places in Paul's writings, and so it commonly became associated with Paul, who wrote not only these analogies but a vast amount of the New Testament. In addition to this, there is a tradition that martyred saints are depicted with the instrument of their death. Paul, at the end of his life, was decapitated with a sword outside the walls of Rome.

Many saints are depicted with symbols in paintings or statues, and they almost always represent something about that Saint. St. Joseph usually has either carpentry tools to show his profession or a lily which represents his purity. St. Boniface often has an axe with which he chopped down an oak tree that pagan Germanic tribes thought was sacred. St. Michael is often depicted above a dragon or a demon, representing his role as defender against the armies of evil. St. Lucy is commonly shown holding a tray with her eyes on it – I'll let you look up why that is! There are so many symbols that help us remember the stories, the example, and the influence of the holy men and women who have gone before us, and it is worth getting to know more and more about the symbols so as to get to know the saints and their lives on a deeper level.
